

There's nothing worse than ending up at the wrong station.

Every month dozens of people end their train journeys at a Police station after being caught faredodging. We will prosecute everyone we catch with a fine of up to £1000 or 3 months in prison and a criminal record.

So if you want your journey to end at the right station, BUY A TICKET.

